Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1953, dedicate this Griffin to a rather abstract idea.

Next year Buchtel will enter a new era as a senior high school. The new building, which will eventually house a student body from all of West Hill, will be started.

We as seniors hope that even though Buchtel will be essentially changed, the traditions that have grown over the last twenty-two years will remain.

It is to the success of this new era that we dedicate the 1953 Griffin.

The Senior Class of 1953

Thank You

Miss Beatrice Rentschler

Mr. O. L. Schneyer and
Carolyn Cunningham

Mr. Fred C. Weber

Mr. O. L. Schneyer, the principal of Buchtel High School, has always been a friend to everyone. We shall always appreciate the little things he has done for us, aside from his regular duties.

Mr. Schneyer manages to keep the school running smoothly and sponsor about a half dozen organizations, and still have time to do all the million and one things connected with the new building.

As you can see, Mr. Schneyer is badly in need of assistants. Mr. Fred C. Weber and Miss Beatrice D. Rentschler fill this bill. Their duties are many and varied; just for an example — Miss Rentschler is the official keeper of the permanent record cards, while it is upon Mr. Weber's shoulder that you cry your locker blues.

Miss Lucile Gustafson
and Miss Bertha Maier

The two counsellors, Miss Bertha L. Maier and Miss Lucile Gustafson, are probably most familiar to us in their checking of absences. Miss Maier checks excuses, while Miss Gustafson rules with the famous yellow slips.

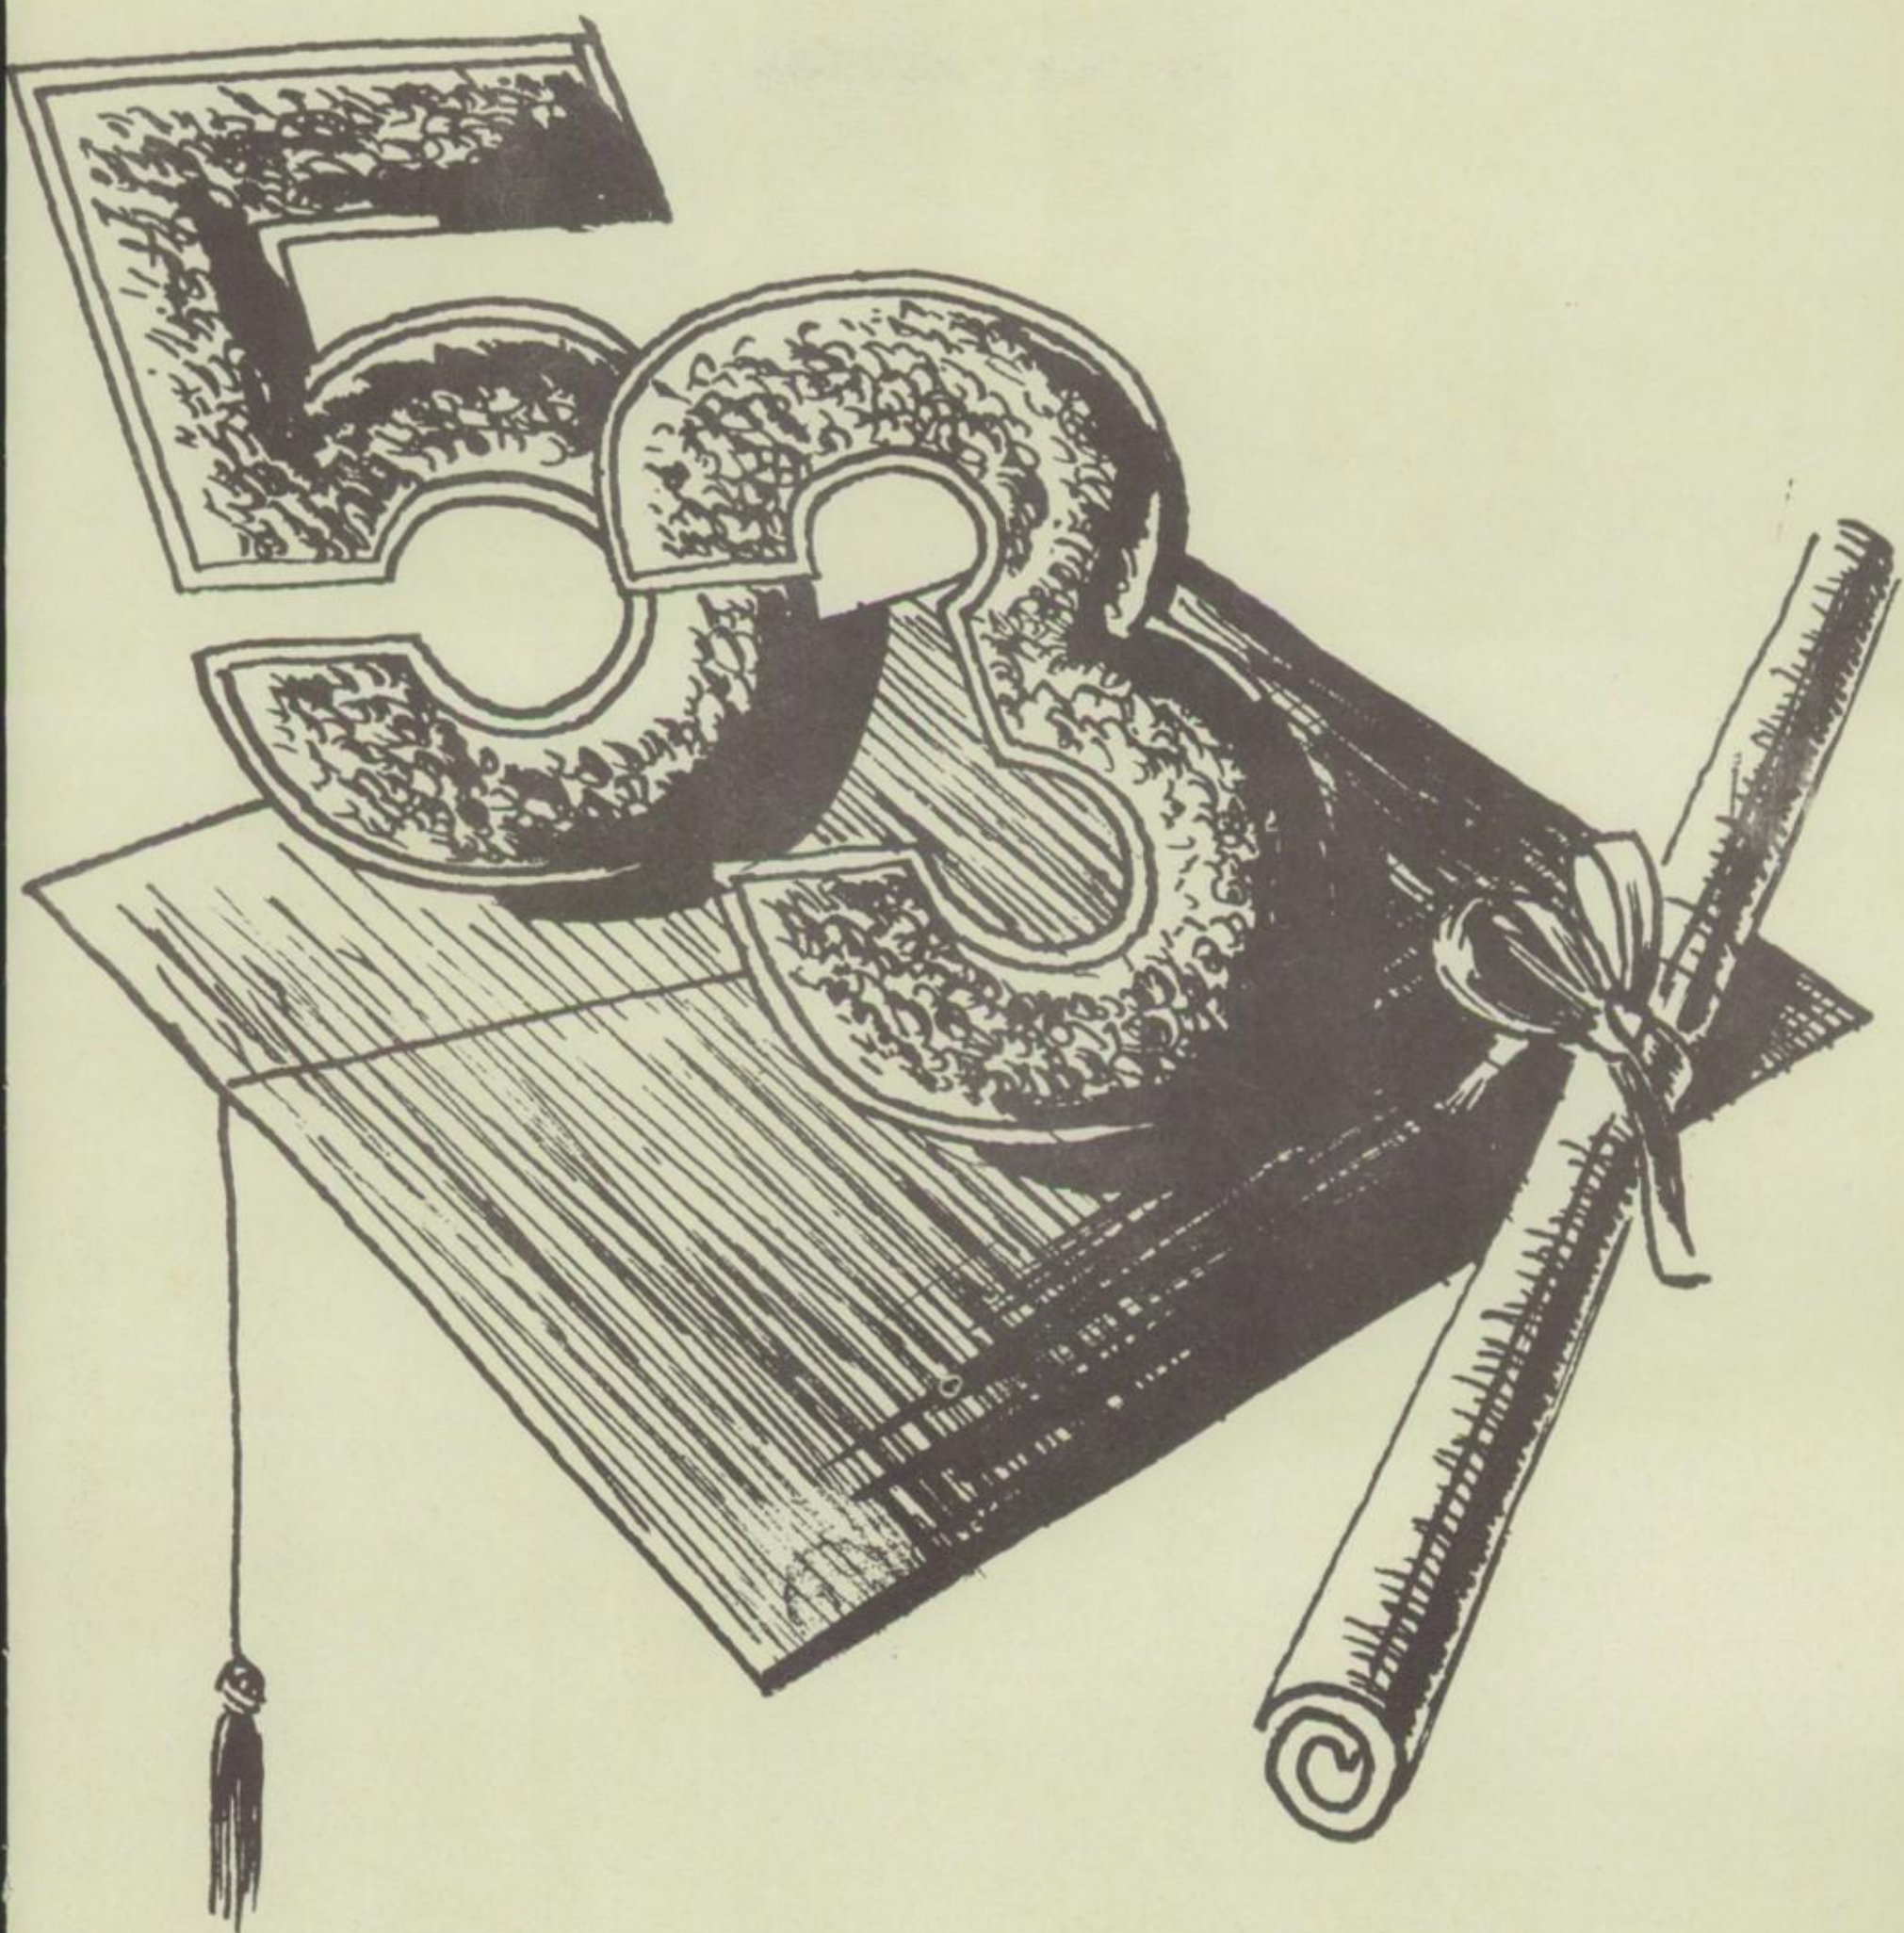

Miss Gustafson teaches history and senior problems, and has organized and written many programs for assemblies. Next year Miss Gustafson will be touring different parts of the world under a Ford Fellowship.

Miss Maier also teaches history, but is most often seen in the office.

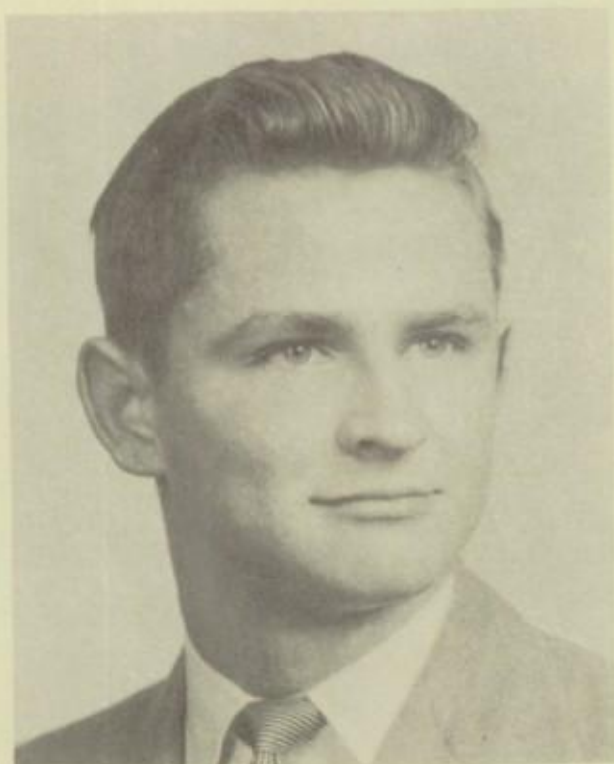

We are, thankful to the principals, counsellors, and advisors who have helped to make our high school days so profitable.

Pictured left to right are the senior advisors, Mr. Leon Friedman, Mr. Vincent Biondo, Mr. Otis Maxwell, and Miss Florence Wooddell. Each of these teachers is responsible for a section of Cafeteria A, the senior homeroom. At some time during the school year each advisor is in charge of the cafeteria as a whole. At this time he or she is in charge of all senior announcements, including those concerning the colleges.

Richard Tevebaugh

The boy and girl who maintained the highest scholastic average in their four years at Buchtel are pictured above. After the final grades are averaged, one of them will receive the greatly coveted Scholarship cup.

National Honor Society

Buchtel High School seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society on Friday, April 17, 1953. This Induction Ceremony was witnessed by the entire school during two assemblies.

All senior students in the upper third of their class were eligible for membership. Those eligible were then individually rated on character and personality traits. The 15% of the class receiving the highest ratings became members of the National Honor Society.

The officers this year are president - Martin Kaye, vice-president - Richard Tevebaugh, secretary - Phyllis Thayer, and treasurer - Leon Speroff.

Anton Milo, a member of last year's chapter, welcomed the new members and gave an explanation of the high ideals of the Society. The speaker was the Rev. Franklin H. Minck. The Glee Club sang the traditional "Send Out Thy Light," and Marlene Geller played a selection on the piano.

It's A Man's World!

Joel Schrank, president

Joel Schrank, the president of the senior class, was well suited for this position. He had received experience in Student Council and in heading the Color and Emblem Committee. Joel has the gift of making people want to help him, and through this he has finished the year's activities "in a burst of glory." It has been Joel's duty to oversee all the senior committees.

Sharing Joel's burden was Norman Gresham, the vice-president. Norman also served on Student Council, and has held several offices during his years at Buchtel.

Keeping the senior class correspondence in order and all the other duties of the secretary fell upon Bill Auten's shoulders. Bill, best remembered as King "B," has performed these duties well.

The treasurer's duties were taken over by Dick Patterson. His principal duty was collecting the class dues.

This is the last year that four boys can hold the four offices; after this it will be two boys and two girls. We wish the senior officers of next year the best of luck.

Norman Gresham, vice-president

Bill Auten, secretary

Dick Patterson, treasurer

Those Who Gave You

The 1953 Griffin

Editing the 1953 Griffin was Janise Burgner; it was her responsibility to oversee the whole book. Mr. Ronald E. Switzer was the faculty advisor.

Financing the book was the problem of Dick Tevebaugh, Alicia Taylor, and Marjorie Windows; the homeroom ad captains also deserve a vote of thanks.

Norma Ferriot and Laura Greenfield were in charge of all pictures; helping them was Judy Miller.

The writing committee was headed by Phyllis Thayer; working with her were Judy Deem, Ina Clayman, and Claire Copping.

Leon Speroff practically made the Sports Section single handed.

Art work was done by Jere Hinton, Dave Post, Roger Sweet, and Judy Deem.

The activities of Joel Schrank and Don Snodgrass were many and varied.

The photographer was Mr. Sidney Mendelson of O'Neils. Mr. John Trippe acted as coordinator of the printing problems.

John Acker's picture committee arranged for the individual pictures in the senior section.

Since it would be impossible to thank personally all those who deserve it, we hope they will accept a great big, all-inclusive "thank you!"

Heading the Junior class of 1952-53 were Dick Rea, president; Bill Boss, vice-president; Pat de Maine, treasurer; and Jean Endres, secretary. The class as a whole has ordered and received rings and sweat shirts, and has had a picnic. Under these leaders the Junior class has enjoyed a fruitful year.

Student

In the spirit of democracy Buchtel students elect a representative body, best known as Student Council. Headed this year by Jon Weingart, it is composed of two freshmen, four sophomores, four juniors, and six seniors.

One of the chief jobs of Student Council is to conduct the elections of the Homecoming Court, May Court, King "B" Court, home-room representatives, class officers, and Student Council. Helping the election committee chairman Dick Rea count ballots are Charlotte Stewart, Martha Rauschenberger, and Jean Gravesmill.

Other activities are keeping everyone supplied with pencils, giving dances, and overseeing the parking lot.

Government

Checking the calendar with Mr. O. L. Schneyer and planning activities for the year are Mr. L. O. Weiss, Steve Bodman, Dick Rea, Mr. Schneyer, and Julie Denison.

Mr. Schneyer is the chairman of Activities Committee, Mr. Weiss is the faculty advisor, and Julie is the secretary.

This is the first year that the Homeroom Representatives have been organized as a group. Their big services to the school were planning the May Dance and helping Student Council in various ways.

By being organized the Homeroom Representatives feel they are able to express the feelings of the student body in a better way.

We Serve

COMpanionship, WORk, and LEisure — these are the principles of Comwolei.

Selling the Howdy booklets and planning for the mad 45 minutes of autograph hunting is just one of Comwolei's many activities. Pictured selling the booklets are Miss Sara Mooney, Melva Minck, Sandy Irvine, and Sally Alexander.

In the other picture the poster which Ann Brueggeman is painting is receiving many admiring glances from Barbara Sauvary, Loretta Anastas, Mrs. Marie Starks, and Annette Power.

Although joint meetings are held occasionally, Jr. and Sr. Y-Teen are two separate groups. Each send representatives to Inter-Club Council, the city-wide Y-Teen organization.

In one picture Miss Margaret Oechsner is showing a film to be considered for the next meeting to Sally Alexander, the program chairman of Sr. Y-Teen, and to Sylvia Smith, program chairman of Jr. Y-Teen.

On Stage Everybody

Dramatic Club includes various types of actors, make-up artists, prop directors and stage managers.

The play pictured is the annual big production which was presented this year at the Y-Teen Sock Hop.

For fun and interesting learning we will remember the Dramatic Club and their leader, Miss Lucile Gustafson.

Four Ladies Chain

Here we see a typical square dance figure being performed by the Promenaders. Those participating are: Gloria Milo, Jon Joyce, Corinne Schroer, Brad Smith, Margaret Wong, Mr. Schneyer, Loretta Tasso, and Jan Banister.

Many Buchtelites have realized what a great form of relaxation and enjoyment square dancing is through joining Promenaders. Mr. Schneyer is the sponsor and the sparkplug of the organization.

Lights, Camera, Action

Because of the efforts of the movie projectionists, Buchtelites have been entertained during lunch hours, health classes, history classes, etc., with first-rate moving pictures.

Grouped around the projection machine are Jack Backer, Burt Woodring, John Thackeray, and Hugh Tucker.

High Ideals for Youth

A school-wide cleanup campaign is just one of the services that the Buchtel Hi-Y club renders to the school. Members taking part in this drive are Port Godard, Jim Kovach, Mr. Harry Schaller, Dave Wyatt, and Jerry Long, the president.

Another outstanding activity of Hi-Y is their annual Lenten service which projects the club's goal of high moral Christian character in the school, home and community.

Jack Backer, the Talon's "camera-happy" photographer is taking a picture of the other staff members: Leon Speroff and Fred Magoline, page 4; Udelle Friedland and Laura Greenfield, page 3; Jan Burgner, editor-in-chief; Phyllis Thayer, page 1; seated: Miss Madeline Fifer, advisor; and Dee Woloch, page 2. Missing was Judy Deem, page 2.

Planning pages, assigning articles, meeting deadlines, and trips to the printer are some of the staff's activities that result in a school newspaper that Buchtelites are proud to recall.

Pinch Your Pennies

These are the hardworking students who keep our school running financially. The book-keepers who make up our Treasury Staff are: standing - Dick Wisberger, Ed Gottfried; seated toward back - Elaine Brattin, Jerry Hetzel; seated toward front - Nancy Hayes, Bill White, Nada Krehel, Joan Riley, and Pat Hummel.

Mr. Baker Demonstrates

Physics Club supplements the everyday Physics classes by adding interest through movies, speakers, and field trips.

The Mad Chemists

Headed by Gary Kepler the Chemistry Club has had interesting speakers, movies, taken a trip, and some of the best parties ever!

Days for lab experiments are favorites for most Chemistry students. Glenn Rogers is demonstrating a simple reaction to Gary Kepler, Judy Marks, Marty Kaye, and Mr. Howard Reeves, the club advisor.

Brain Trusts

Every year the outstanding students of BHS take advantage of the opportunities offered by the scholarship tests. Most of these have no direct monetary return, but earn recognition for the school and students, besides the valuable experience which is gained.

Talking over the tests are Jerry Federman, Miss Grace Courtney, Miss Margaret Nottingham, and Lois Union.

We Resolve

The newly organized Politiclub meets every other Tuesday at 3:15 to discuss questions of importance and interest. Already the club has heard several excellent speakers. Mr. Leon Friedman is the faculty advisor, and John Naum is the president.

Stamps and Coins

Buchtel gave birth to two new clubs this year, the youngest being the Stamp and Coin. Its main purpose is to study the unusual stamps and coins, a subject in which all the members are interested.

"Te Amo"

A lasting interest in Latin culture is the goal of Latin Club. It also develops an interest in the ways Latin has influenced our everyday life. The club is headed by Ione Sandberg, and Miss Helen Pfahl is the faculty advisor.

Seated around the table are: Miss Pfahl, Jon Roush, Mary Jean Prince, and Anita Szegvari standing are: Dick Dobrow, Richard Steiner, Ione Sandberg, and Charlotte Stewart.

Speech! Speech!

Buchtel's Speech students who enter competition have made the name of Buchtel and Miss Dorothy Whittington stand out in speech circles.

Several times this year, Buchtel students have placed high in state competitions.

Artists Admire Efforts

Bringing back many honors and awards to Buchtel are the enthusiastic members of Miss Frances Robinson's art classes. Pictured looking over their sculpturing efforts are Diane Garick, Dixie Sprague, Roger Sweet, and Emory Smith.

The art room is like a miniature art gallery, since it is practically filled with art work of every kind.

Future Homemakers

Many Buchtel girls are engaged in training for future occupations, but the group taking the home economics course seems to be the most practical of all.

By watching their teacher, Miss Evelyn Francis, and later practicing what they have learned, these girls are finding "the quickest way to a man's heart."

This course in home ec also starts the girls in a career in dietetics, teaching home ec, and home management.

Peek at Teacher's Meeting

This picture gives Buchtel students the rare opportunity of looking in on a faculty meeting. Mr. Schneyer is presenting an important problem to the following teachers: (seated) Miss Mary Fisher, Mrs. Cora Snider, Miss Corinne Helwig, Mrs. Beulah Hudson, Miss Anna Simpson; (standing) Miss Emma Stuckey, Miss Frances Robinson, Miss Ellen Due, and Mr. Harry Weir.

Not only will we remember these teachers for their instruction, but for being sincere friends and advisors.

Bring 'Em In!

Despite their hard work this group receives little recognition. They put in a good deal of extra time collecting, counting, and sorting tax stamps.

Without the efforts of this committee the building of the new tennis courts would still be a dream. Shown here are Helen Bakos, Edris Tarr, Miss Clara Goss, and Ned Shearer.

Handy-Men

Buchtel's most active and noisy room is the shop. The saws and drills are kept busy as these boys, guided by Mr. Harold Shaffer, create many useful articles. Their job does not end with making personal belongings. They repair book-cases, fix sewing machine parts, and countless other things where there is need of a handyman.

"Hall Pass, Please"

That group of boys and girls who make it difficult for you to wander through the halls during the lunch periods are best known as hall guards. This group is headed by Mr. Harry Schaller.

It would take quite a picture to get all the hall guards' pictures in, but doing the best we could, here is what we came up with. Included are George Sherlock, Dick Gillespie, Dave Wyatt, Jim Chevrier, John Lucas, Art Gosling, and Mike Hiltner; (seated) Bob Hagen, Stu Block, and Carl Douglas.

Smiling Faces

Among Books

Every period of the day the library helpers are in evidence. They stamp books, dust, and do many odd jobs. Miss Katherine Sexauer is the librarian, but through the day many teachers help her.

Helping in the Cafeteria

Working in the cafeteria as cashiers, by serving food, and by cleaning up keep many of our students busy. Shown at the left are Ted Plueger, Ann Baldwin, Margery Nimmer, and Pat Moran.

Testing the Pies

Preparing food for approximately eight hundred starving Buchtelites is the job of the cooks.

Shown here are Bertha Nix, baker; Anna Hinkle, assistant baker; Blanche Crayon; and Betty Harrison.

The cooks deserve a vote of thanks for the many well-cooked meals they have served.

Custodians Relax

Keeping the school dust free and spotless is the job of the custodians: Mr. George Pryor, Sr., Alvin Junke, La Verne Rusk, and George Pryor, Jr.

Aside from their regular duties, the students have appreciated their help "above and beyond the call of duty."

Secretaries at Work

Typing our transcripts and keeping the files straight, among other things, seem to keep the two office secretaries busy. They are Miss Grace Weber and Mrs. Catherine Mohn.

Students are used in the office to run errands, type and file. At least two are on duty every period of the day. The two pictured are Catherine Anderson and Mary Lou Culin.

Music! Music! Music!

The Junior and Senior Glee Clubs, under the direction of Mrs. Leora Stoneburner, have made our more serious assemblies much more enjoyable.

Much time and effort go into the preparation for the Thanksgiving, Christmas, May Day, and NHS assemblies. The Hallelujah Chorus, which is always sung at the Christmas assembly, seems to grow more beautiful each year.

Mrs. Grace Boesche directs the Freshman Glee Club of all girls. It was heard at the May Day Pageant.

Officers of the Sr. Glee Club are: Carolyn Cunningham, president; Sue Anderson, vice-president; Elaine Maurides, secretary; Ann Hundley, treasurer.

Band

The annual band concert was given March 20, under the direction of Mr. Edwin Bonebrake. This is the day the band gets top billing, although its music is an important part of many other activities throughout the year.

During the fall the band really gets a workout when it plays for the football games and assemblies. This usually requires extra hours of practice.

President of the band is Dave Post, and the vice-president is Sylvia Park.

Orchestra

Directed by Mrs. Leora Stoneburner, the orchestra makes music to be proud of. It is kept busy in preparation for our serious assemblies.

Its members agree that the period that the orchestra meets is one of the most enjoyable of the day.

Howdy

Headed by Julie Denison and Carol Keach, the cheerleaders have been a necessary part of the football and basketball games and of the assemblies.

Jean Endres, Betty Ann Brock, Anita Fichtner, Jan Johnson, Susan Wolff, and Julia Kirn helped Julie and Carol urge the team on to victory.

Buchtel's high-stepping majorettes have long been an object of our pride. Headed by Jean Gravesmill, their precision drilling and colorful baton twirling displays have added spice to the football games.

Stepping Lively

Sandra Treece, Nancy Hitchcock, Jean Endres, Lynne Miller, Lora Rose, Queen Jane Weaver, Crowner Julie Denison, Pat Moran, Jean Gravesmill, Betty Ann Brock, Olga Zarembo, and Rosalie Clark.

October 24 and 25 were red-letter days for most Buchtelites, for those days were best known as the Homecoming Weekend. The queen and her court, graduates, and the football team were honored at an assembly, game and dance.

At the assembly many of the clubs submitted floats, which added to the excitement which would not reach a climax for 36 hours.

Jane Weaver was crowned by Julie Denison at the half-time of the game with Garfield. The court was dressed in black skirts and white sweaters trimmed with black velvet collars.

The dance was a big success. Many alumni were there, and the queen and her court looked beautiful. Dave Huprich played in the decorated gym.

The Homecoming Weekend, everyone agreed, would be long remembered.

King B Reigns Supreme

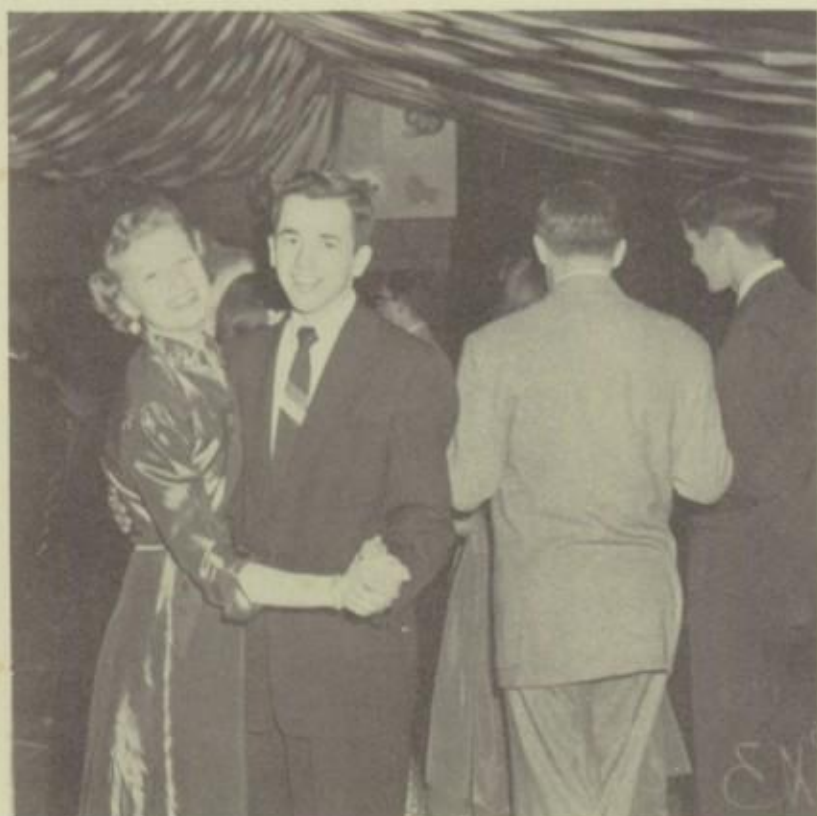

With Bill Auten reigning as King B the dance and other festivities proved to be a big success.

The Senior Y-Teen decorated for the dance and generally supervised the event. It was Lynne Miller, president of the organization, who presented the knights, announced that Jon Weingart was Crowner, and congratulated King Bill the night of the dance.

Couples danced for the rest of the evening in a Valentine atmosphere to the music of Dave Huprich.

May Day

The annual May Day festivities took place April 30, May 1 and 2. The queen was crowned for the school at the two morning assemblies. At these Alese and her court were entertained by Buchtel talent.

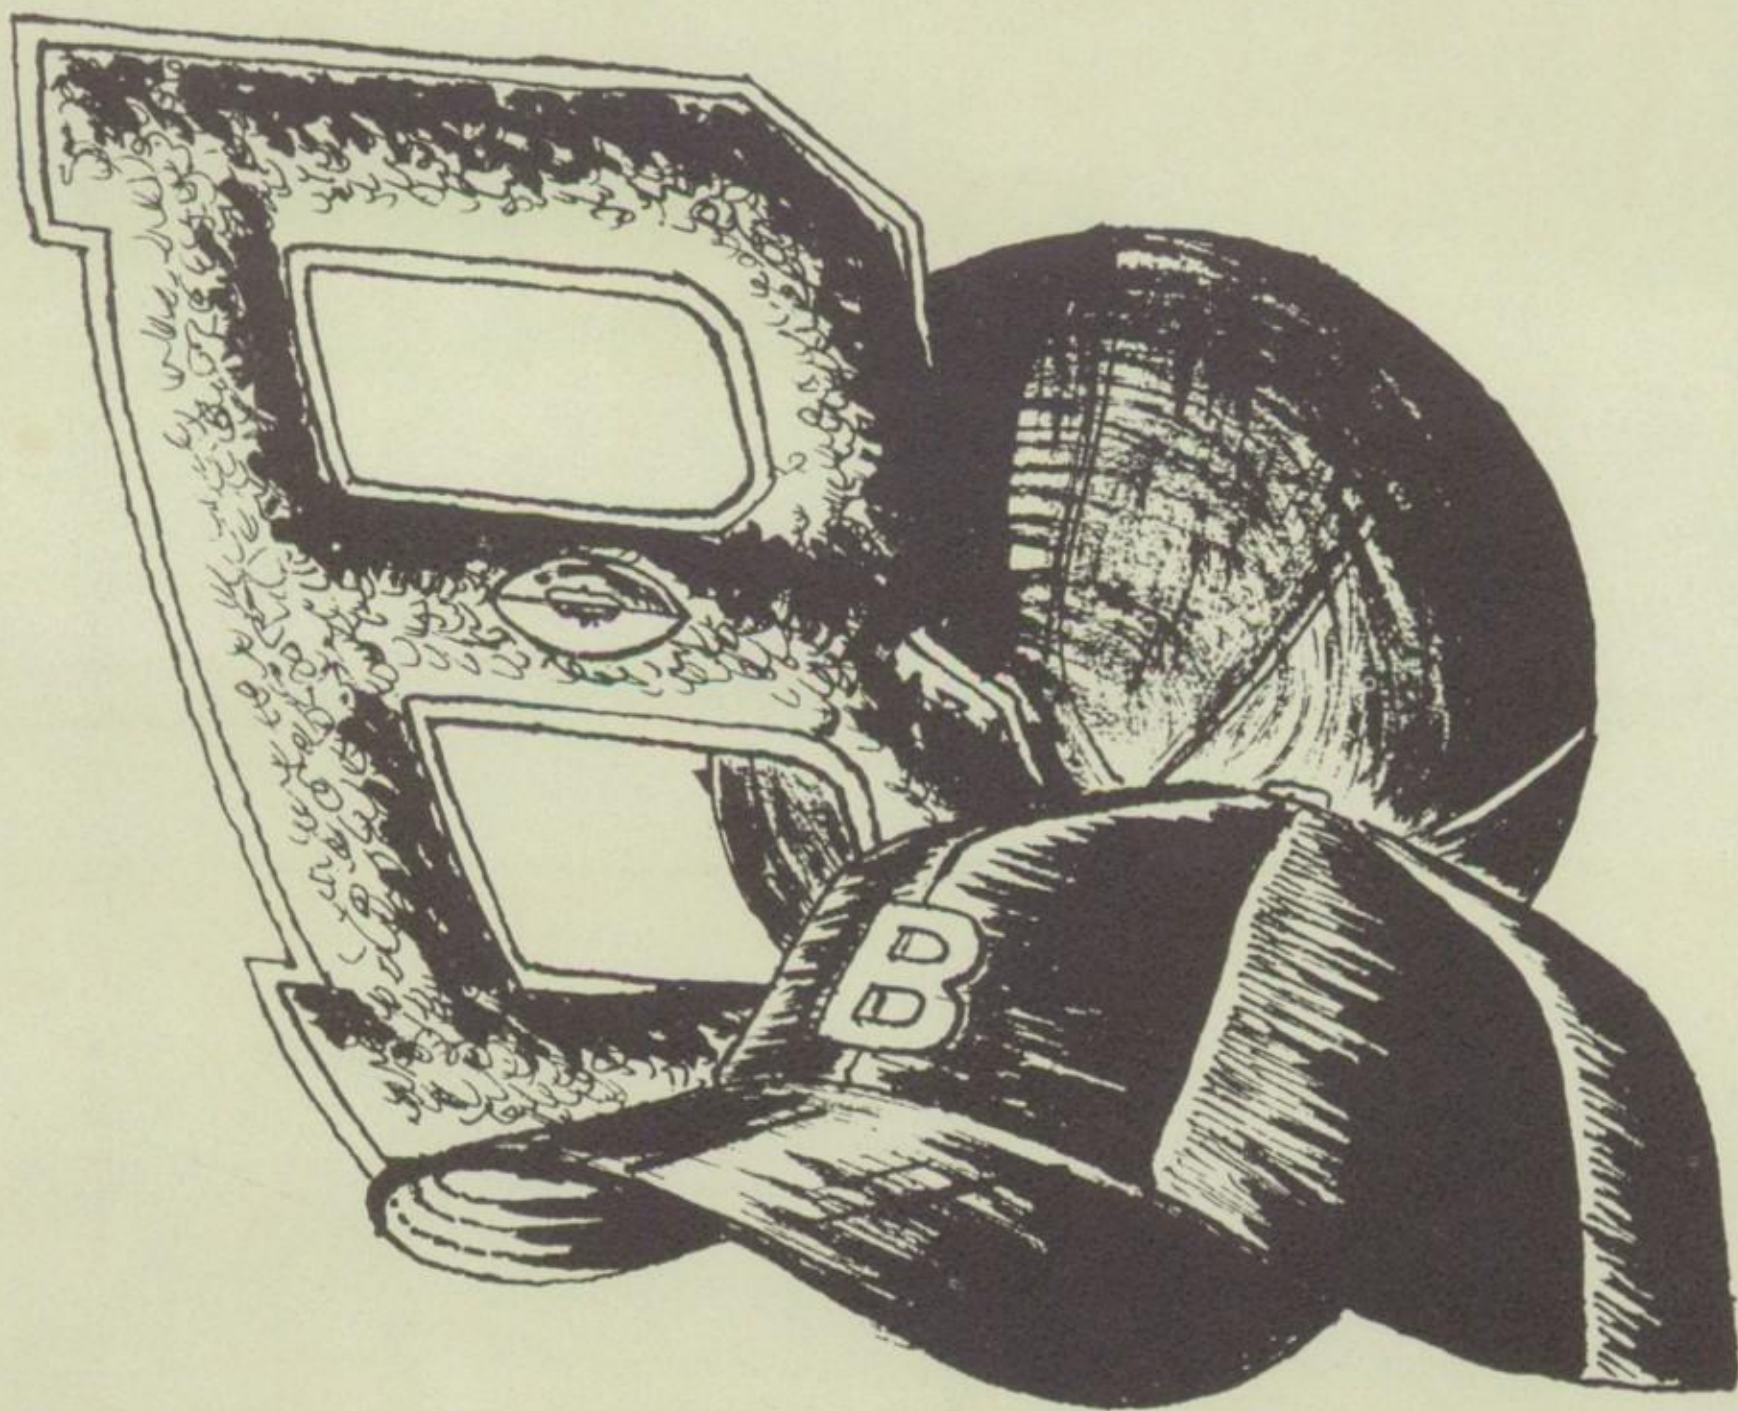

Both Thursday and Friday night the May Festival was given for parents and friends. The Glee Clubs sang for the event, and the orchestra played.

Saturday night the queen and her court were honored at the May Magic dance, given by the homeroom representatives.

Third row: Coach Fred Cook, Bob Gulka, Bud Eisenhart, Dan Compagno, Ed Matzules, Dave Nelander, Herb Goldstein.

The football season ended on a piece of paper. As a result of a tie in the city series waring, rival coaches were forced to draw for positions. Coach Fred Cook held the slip marked "out."

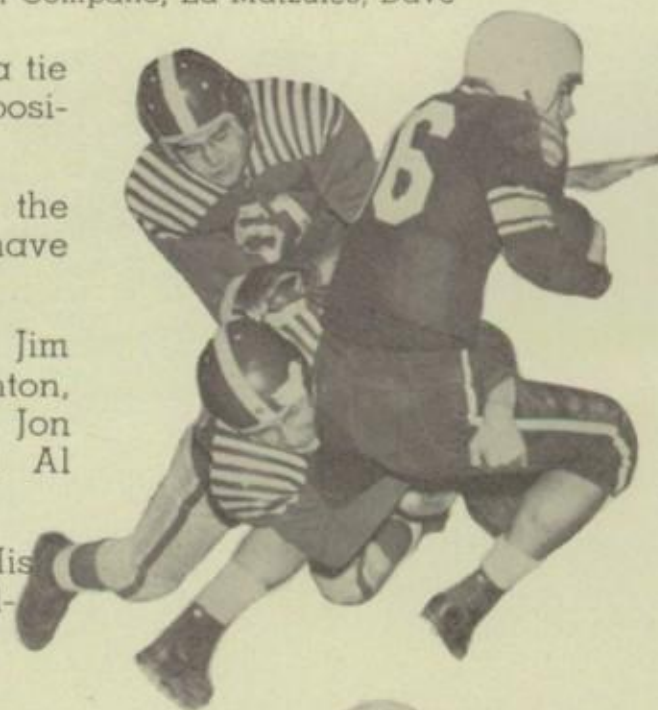

But Buchtel will long remember the final game of the season, the Kenmore game. Playing "near perfect," the team proved it could have given any one a run for the money.

Senior members were Bill Auten, Tom Becker, Joe Betterton, Jim Chevrier, Bruce Church, Jerry Hetzel, Jere Hinton, Norm Gresham, Dick Patterson, Kent Prichard, Jon Weingart, Rick Wright, Glenn Rogers, and Al Ploenes.

Rick Wright was elected honorary captain. His record proves his worth. Rick was selected all-city offensive end, all-district defensive guard, all-Ohio offensive end - honorable mention, and defensive guard for the North-South All Star game.

Tom Becker was honored with an offensive tackle position on the all-city team and the all-district second team.

Kent Prichard was chosen as an all-city back on the second team and Bill Auten was an all-city offensive end on the third team.

Seated: Louis Gergis, Glenn Rogers.

Basketeers

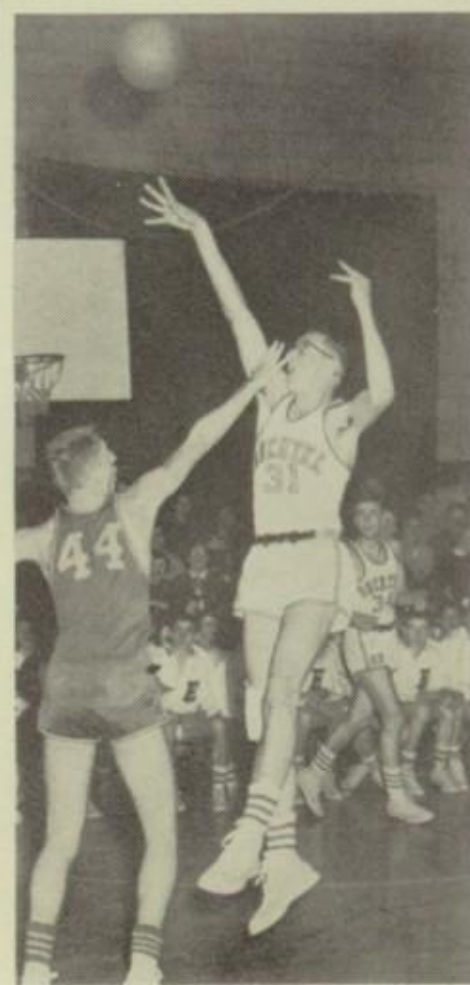

Playing through a 15-game schedule, the varsity basketballers broke several Buchtel scoring records along the way. In beating St. Vincents, the team set a new all-time Buchtel total of 77 points. The old total was topped in the Kenmore and West games also. These games plus the North fracas and the Hower contest all topped the old City Series scoring record. The team averaged 63.5 points per game which is another Buchtel record.

Junior Dave Wood wrote his name in the Buchtel record book by hitting for the top per game output in Buchtel history, 19.6 points.

Dave Wood and senior Joe Magyar, the only returning lettermen from the preceding squad, were selected for the Akron All-City team, first and second strings, respectively. Dave also received honorable mention on the United Press All-Ohio team and the All-Ohio team of the scholastic sports magazine, First and Ten.

Winning their coveted B's with the '52-'53 Griffin cagers were seniors — Dan Demko, Howard Stockton, Dick Tevebaugh, and Joe Magyar; juniors — Bud deBruin, Bill Lewis, and Dave Wood; and sophomore — manager Bill Lebeau.

The season was a big one for the seniors on the squad. It was their last. The year came to a close at the annual banquet. Dan Demko and Joe Magyar were elected as honorary co-captains.

For Joe Magyar, it ended a brilliant history of high school basketball. Joe holds the distinction of being the only sophomore to date to make the starting varsity line. He topped this feat by being selected for the second string All-City team. He also won the team foul-shooting trophy that year. Joe was again picked for the All-City second string in his junior year. He was also placed on the district all-tournament team.

In Joe's three years of basketball, he has been among the big ten in the city scoring race each year.

The highlight of the season was the battle of the ages, a test of endurance. Of course, it was the faculty-varsity game.

With the Fearless Faculty playing their usual brand of rough and sock 'em type of ball, the varsity bowed to a defeat which was predicted in all betting circles.

Track

Over 75 boys, including 14 seniors, inaugurated Coach Hal Schoonover's initial season as track mentor.

Rick Wright, above, throwing the shot put and Bruce Church, below, in the broad jump—two of the senior stalwarts of the team.

Below - Jere Hinton and Dick Patterson, distance runners.

Roger Sweet, pole vaulter and dashman, and Jim Chevrier, also a top man in the dashes.

The '53 thinclads fielded one of the best teams in the area and enjoyed a successful year.

Kneeling in front: Managers - Bob Boudreau, Don Alexander, Jeff McKelvey.
